

ALEXANDER STANDISH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was created in memory of Alexander Standish, CAE, SRA, CSA, CCA, SRPA, CCMA II, who was a Past CAAO President and long-time educator for State and International Assessors Associations.

His passion was assessment/appraisal and providing the best possible information to all students aspiring to work in the field. It thereby follows that the scholarship is for education.

- The award is $500.
- The recipient must be a CAAO member.
- The recipient cannot already be a CCMA II, must be pursuing a CCMA designation and taking any of the CCMA classes necessary for certification. The award is for the annual June Assessors' School at UCONN only.
- The award can be used for tuition, room & board, and /or other UCONN/CAAO related dinner activities up to the $500 limit.
- Applications must be received by the Professional Designations & Awards Committee by November 1 each year.
- The award will be made at the Annual Fall CAAO Meeting, by drawing applications lottery style (with two alternates drawn).
- The Professional Designations & Awards committee will supply applications by email to potentially qualified candidates.
