

CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS

ARTICLE I

Section 1: Name

This Association shall be named the Windham Area Assessors Association.

Section: Objectives

The purpose of this organization shall be to increase the efficiency of area Assessing Officers in the performance of their duties through mutual cooperation, and to assist the Connecticut Association of Assessing Officers, Inc. in every reasonable way.

ARTICLE II

Section 1: Membership

The membership shall be open to all public officials actively engaged in the Assessment Field. Members shall include, but not be limited to Assessors, clerks and other employees of the Assessor's Office so designated by the local Assessor. Additional membership shall be granted to all other candidates approved by the executive board.

The Executive Board may confer life membership on one who has been a member of the association for 15 years or more, and who has retired from the assessment profession. Life members shall have all of the rights and privileges of members, but without the obligation to pay membership dues.

Section 2: Dues

The dues shall be determined annually, by the membership, present at the May meeting. Dues shall be payable in a single payment during the month of September. The right to vote shall be suspended for all members who are sixty (60) days in arrears in their dues. Each member may invite a guest to any meeting at no additional cost.

ARTICLE III

Section 1: Officers

The officers of this Association shall consist of the following: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. In addition to these officers, a County Representative to the Connecticut Association of Assessing Officers, Inc. shall be the president of his appointee. The representative shall serve from November through the following October.

Section 2: Election of Officers

The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting in May and shall serve for a term of one year. A nominating committee shall be appointed by the President at the March meeting and shall present their slate at the May meeting. Nominations shall also be taken from the floor at the May meeting. The membership of the nominating committee shall consist of at least three (3) voting members – none of whom shall be presiding Officers. In the event of an interim vacancy, the Executive Board shall elect a successor for the remainder of the term, except in the vacancy of the President, where the Vice President shall automatically serve the unexpired term.

Section 3: Committees

All committees shall be appointed by the President.

Section 4: Executive Board

The executive board shall consist of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and the Immediate Past President. This Board shall be responsible for the general conduct of affairs of the organization in the absence of the membership meeting. Each member of this board shall be entitled to a single vote on each issue. Executive Board meetings need not be scheduled on a regular basis. The President shall convene such meetings at his/her discretion.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1: Duties of the Officers

- A. President: The President shall preside at all meetings of members and the Executive Board for the purpose of transacting Association business. This officer shall appoint all committees.
- B. Vice President: The Vice President shall exercise all the powers and duties of the President during his/her absence or inability to act, and shall perform such other duties as the President shall assign.
- C. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be the chief financial agent of the Association. He/she shall collect all monies and pay them out as so authorized by the Executive Board. The Treasurer shall submit a report at each meeting and an annual report at the September meeting. The Books of Record shall be audited by a committee consisting of the immediate Past President and a member appointed by the incoming President.
- D. Secretary: The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all membership and Executive Board Meetings, shall present the minutes of the previous meeting and shall handle all correspondence. In addition, the Secretary shall perform other duties as may from time to time be delegated by the President.
